FOR ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS & THEIR COMMUNITIES

Big Laughs. Big Wonder. Lessons That Last.

An assembly they'll love.
A shared experience they'll remember.

A gym full of laughter and wide-eyed wonder. Students join in, think and discover how magic can make a positive message memorable.

An authentic moment from Neal's school performances.

★★★★★

"Rockstar Magic brought the best assembly I've seen in 25+ years of teaching!"

Rita Parker · Educator · Forest, Virginia
Featured review excerpt

Choose the day your students need.

Character-Building Assemblies

Respect, responsibility, kindness, leadership and positive choices, woven into magic and laughter. Reinforce your school's goals with a message that feels like part of the fun.

Dream Big Magic Show

Imagination, possibility and a wonderful shared memory. A just-for-fun celebration for student rewards, school milestones and end-of-year excitement. No lesson plan required.

Reading Rewards Magic Show

Celebrate books, curiosity and the places stories can take us. Bring energy to a literacy event, launch a reading challenge or reward students for reaching their reading goals.

Character programs can complement PBIS, Leader in Me and Character Counts initiatives. No official affiliation or certification is implied.

Real reactions from young audience members.

NEARLY 20 YEARS. THOUSANDS OF SHOWS.

Experience that holds the room.

From kindergarten through upper elementary, Neal adjusts his pacing and keeps participation encouraging. His experience includes students with special needs. Share access and sensory considerations as you plan.

Professional sound equipment, thoughtful preparation and respect for your schedule help make the day easier for staff.

THE FEATURED EXPERIENCE

Family Night. Something wonderful to share.

Students, parents, grandparents and teachers, sharing the same laughter, surprises and impossible moments.

Interactive comedy and astonishing magic, designed for mixed-age families. Give your community something wonderful to talk about on the ride home.

Welcoming participation, for students and grown-ups alike.

One visit. Two unforgettable experiences.

A daytime assembly for students. A different show that evening for families, with different material and a fresh reason to return.

Ask about assembly and Family Night combinations, multiple assemblies or coordinating dates with neighboring schools. Quotes reflect your programs, schedule and travel.

★★★★★

“Students in all grade levels were engaged and amazed throughout the entire performance. Neal’s sense of humor and talent were as entertaining to the teachers and staff as they were to our students.”

Casey Avent · Elementary School Reading Goals Program
Review excerpt

★★★★★

“Neal gave an excellent show… Students and parents thoroughly enjoyed the event! 10/10 would recommend.”

Brandi Stanley · Honeycutt Elementary
Published review excerpt

Your Students. Your School. My Personal Commitment.

“When a school invites me to perform, I know I’m being trusted with something important: its students, its staff, and its time.

I’ll listen to your goals, help you select the right program, prepare thoughtfully, and bring nearly 20 years of experience to creating an experience your students will love.

My goal is simple: make your job easier, bring genuine joy to your school, and leave your students with something positive to remember.”

Neal Chamberlain

Let’s bring something wonderful to your school!

Share your school, preferred dates, grade levels and goals. From a reading celebration to an unforgettable Family Night, let’s explore the possibilities.

Check School Show Availability →

nealchamberlain.com
booking@nealchamberlain.com · 919-995-3924