

Afterword

May 25, 2012, I began to channel information from some unknown source. The first time it happened I had just finished getting an adjustment from my chiropractor when I began to feel strange. This feeling was quite like that of an anxiety attack, but without the racing heartbeat and jitters. I managed to get to my vehicle to pull out a pen and paper when my physical hearing dimmed and my hand began to write. The words flooded my brain as if type written on a computer screen. I believe the information that came through was messages from a collection of terrestrial beings that wished to communicate their feelings about where we came from, what was happening and what was going to happen as we move forward into the future. There are three passages that came at different points in time from May 2012 through April 2013.

In the beginning, life emerged from our ancestral tides that lavished the planet. Earthen formations moved, flexing and shifting to bring forth new life and structure, revealing steadfast universal adulation for all walks of life. No organism was dismissed nor treated with undue respect. No matter how diverse each were, all were created equal. Not one will flee from the perpetual cycle of life and death; time immemorial, changes all and none.

Today, we bare crux and veracity that what was, is, and will be shall rise once more.

Terminality be not sacrificed; souls gather on all levels; commonality braves world challenges increasing adaptability.

Let it be known that we are fair and just. Reverberations of joy and sorrow are yet to come and we are distinctly affirming your oneness in order to bring about universal harmony.

Be at peace brothers and sisters. We are here to reveal your purpose throughout this sacred period. Join in community as the breaking down and rising up occurs. You are not alone.

April 25, 2013

Plagued by corrupt change the masses struggle, revealing what some might call absolute trust. Decisions made from decisions sewn provide order for those that lack the steadfast peace. You are in the midst of sacred movement. Troubles will abate, torrent affairs will be necessary. With each, a calming will come. Restitution amalgamates change. Know that you are loved and well cared for. All the old must die in order to find the newness of tomorrow. Physical casualties may be many and none. Some structures will crumble and the tall ones will fall. Eat, drink and be merry in this loving time.

As I developed my ability to communicate with my cells, and the energy outside of myself, I learned how to ask better questions. Understanding the channeled sessions led to my desire to know what humanity was headed for in the years to come.

Perpetuation of Life

As I bring my work to a close I wanted to take a look into the future to see just what was to come of humanity. I took this opportunity to speak to my God source about the perpetuation of life so that you could get a glimpse of the future as well.

God source offers:

Incremental differences support vast networks that lead to life cycles. Life cycles are affected by choices. You choose this _____ and _____ happens based on that choice. Your thoughts and actions play a vital role in the perpetuation of life.

My question:

When we are each living our own sacred time, what does perpetuation of life look like over the next 50 to 100 years?

God source offers:

Cosmic Chasms. Structure depleted. Void of known karma. Heaven on Earth, no self-limiting challenges, unity, peace, known oneness, a mind-calm or numbing takes place. Quality sustainability, love abound, connected, caring, purity, conscious giving.

What does the U.S. government system look like 20 to 50 years from today?

God source offers:

World Unified. A united front, unified in brotherhood. Headlong not headstrong 50 to 100 years?

God source offers:

Universal consciousness. Incorporating Extraterrestrial forms. Move from life sustaining to life enhancing, to being; otherwise known as IS-ness.
